WILLOW SPRINGS, Mo.,
Feb. 3.—Led by a gangling 20-year-old farm boy, G-men and police early today found the bullet pierced body of Dr. J. C. B. Davis, prominent Missouri physician who was kidnaped for ransom last week.
The youth, Robert Kenyon, was quickly spirited to the jail in Willow Springs after he had led the posse to the body. Local officers announced:
"This was a one man job and we have the man in custody."

Arrested Yesterday
Kenyon was arrested early yesterday by Federal agents because he had disappeared at about the same time as Dr. Davis. Earl J. Connelly, chief inspector, announced that when seized in the home of a farmer near Grinnett, Mo., Kenyon was carrying an automatic pistol and a piece of paper with pencil depressions which fitted exactly underneath the words of the ransom note sent to Dr. Davis' family.
After a twenty-hour inquisition, Connelly said the youth at last agreed to lead them to the body.
He took the officers on a roundabout trip to the foothills of the Ozarks near Olden, about 11 miles south of here. Scrambling through

PA NEW OBSERVES

Weather conditions today would very much indicate that the groundhog did see his shadow when he took a look around on Tuesday. The bright sunshine today gave little indication of any severe winter ahead.

Most all streams in this vicinity are now back about at a normal stage, following the high water and flood conditions of about a week ago.

Ice skating enthusiasts are now having their fling. Large crowds were reported on the lakes and ponds in this vicinity last night.
Lack of heavy snow puts the ice in fine condition for the skating sport.

Within a very short time, it is reported at the post office, all employees in the New Castle district will have been assigned permanent social security account numbers by the federal government. The account registration work has been progressing for weeks at the post office here, but with the opening of a permanent social security branch in the Johnson building all records will be transferred there.

New Castleites are still a superstitious lot. On Washington street sidewalk yesterday, a large step ladder was in use to reach an electric sign. There was plenty of room for any number of pedestrians to walk under the outspread ladder, but only about one out of twenty did it. All others carefully walked out around the ladder.

as well.
Goodyear plant No. 2, employing

E. E. White, secretary of the Good-that plant No. 1 is still operating "temporarily," and declared:

"We might close the whole works."
The company, in a prepared statement, charged that two company executives were ejected from a department in plant No. 2 where a dispute arose last night, and that this morning an employee was beaten

Main Levees On Mississippi Are Expected To Hold

Engineers Revise Estimates
As To Possible Height
Of Flood Crest

HUGE ARMY OF MEN
AWAIT EMERGENCY

"Situation Well In Hand"
Is Report Of Chief Army
Engineer

(International News Service)
The Ohio river took a last cruel fling at its lower valley today as its flood crest moved nearer the confluence with the Mississippi. A rapid rise at Cairo early today indicated, engineers said, the approach of the crest.
Cairo's army of 4,000 patrolled every foot of the levee today, ready to bolster the emergency bulkhead atop the 60-foot concrete seawall. Engineers predicted the crest will not exceed 60 1/2 feet and Cairo's flood fighters, confident in the strength of their bulkhead, were certain their long and spectacular fight against the river was won.
"Sand boils," geysers of muddy water forced under the seawall by the terrific pressure of the flood water, plagued Cairo. Two score blocks in the northern section of the city were flooded, a house collapsed, paving sank, and a gas main burst before an emergency crew was able to apply a "poultice" of sandbags around the gushers.
Downstream there was mingled joy and sorrow—sorrow at New Madrid, Mo., where the death toll of levee workers mounted to 15, with 14 others still unaccounted for.
Crews continued grappling in the floodway today on the site of the sinking of a barge with 100 men aboard Saturday night. Ten bodies were recovered yesterday.

Revise Crest Figures Cheering news was a general downward revision of predicted flood stages.
Col. Eugene Reynolds, district engineer, declared the Mississippi flood stage at Memphis "probably will not exceed 51 feet." Previously he had predicted a 55-foot maximum.
Army engineers expressed renewed confidence in the main levee system, but nevertheless kept their pick and shovel army of 120,000 men deployed along the 1,200 miles of dikes from Cairo to New Orleans.
"The situation is well in hand," Maj. Gen. Edward H. Markham, chief of army engineers touring the flood area, declared at Hickman, Ky., last night. "I am impressed by the flood, but reaffirm that the levee system is working as planned and nobody will be wet."

Gen. Markham, P. W. A. Administrator Harry Hopkins, chairman of the President's special flood commission, and other members of the commission continued their voyage upstream last night, and were to meet Gov. Henry Horner and other Illinois officials at Cairo today.
Major danger points today were at Cairo, Hickman, New Madrid, Mo., Bessie and Tiptonville, Tenn., and Helena, Ark.

The building was erected in 1895 and was the first church home of the College Hill congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian denomination. Since 1926 the congregation has been housed in the stone structure on the eastern end of the same plot of ground.
The fire is supposed to have originated in the kitchen of the Coffee Shop which was in process of having its equipment moved to a new location.
The fire was first observed about 6:45 o'clock. An alarm was answered by the Beaver Falls and College Hill fire departments but by the time the equipment arrived the flames had a strong start.
William Ramsey of Sixth Avenue, probably is responsible for the fire not resulting in an explosion and endangering the surrounding buildings. At the risk of his life he forced his way into the cellar of the hardware store and removed a stock of explosives stored there.
At six o'clock this morning the fire broke out afresh but was quickly subdued by the firemen.

Cairo Continues Flood Crest Battle

(International News Service)
CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 3.—Cairo's "zero hour" is at hand.
The army of men that has staged a long and spectacular fight to save the city from the flood waters surging on every side, was called to the levee early today as the river began rising after remaining at a stationary stage a few inches below the top of the seawall for 15 hours.
The rise, engineers believed, indicated the approach of the flood crest and the crisis.
Every foot of the emergency bulkhead atop the 60-foot concrete seawall was patrolled. Along the river side of the levee 55 coast guard boats were moored, ready to take off the army of levee workers should the river finally claim the isolated city.
The river passed the 59 1/2 foot stage early today, and began licking at the 18-inch wide bulkhead—a timber frame filled with sacks of earth—atop the concrete levee.
The battle had been believed over as the river remained stationary hour after hour, and only skeleton patrols were on duty when the

Sit-Down Strike Tactics Attacked By A. F. Of L.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—A lashing attack by the American Federation of Labor on sit-down strikes and a senate resolution asking an investigation on the General Motors Corp., comprised today's Washington developments in the automobile workers' strike.
The federation's attack was directed at John L. Lewis and the automobile strikers—operating under the CIO, which Lewis heads and which was suspended from the old guard, Craft-Union Federation of Labor last fall.
The strikers' drive for a congress-drafted by CIO attorney Lee Press-

by Senator Neely (D) of West Virginia. It called for a sweeping inquiry into all phases of the General chances of success.

Sit-Downers Declare They

Court Order

(BULLETIN)
DETROIT, Feb. 3.—

Gov. Frank Murphy of Michigan this afternoon ordered Sheriff Thomas Wolcott of Flint not to take any action to evict
"death stand" sit-down
strikers while peace conferences here continued
today in the auto strikes.
His action came after he expressed hope for a truce between General Motors and the United Auto Workers union as he got high commands of both warring forces together here.
Sheriff Wolcott in Flint immediately announced he would obey the governor.
The sit-down strikers themselves said they would come out of the plants peacefully at 3 p. m.—the evacuation deadline—
if Gov. Murphy requested it.

DETROIT, Feb. 3.—With sit-down strikers declaring themselves ready for a "death stand," John L.
Lewis, chief strategist for the United Auto Workers
Union, and William S.
Knudsen, General Motors
executive vice president, met face to face today to confer on the auto strike situation.
Gov. Frank Murphy
brought the high command of the two warring groups together.

"Wishes Of President"
Before he left for the meeting, surrounded by secrecy, Knudsen issued a copy of a letter he had written to Gov. Murphy. He said he was meeting with Lewis in view of a statement by Gov. Murphy that the meeting was "in accordance with the wishes of President Roosevelt."

conferences requested by Secretary of Labor Perkins due to the illegal possession of the plants by the strikers," Knudsen said.

Phenomenon At Cairo Explained

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—"Sand Boils" or geysers on the streets of Cairo, Ill., are the result of an underground stream forced upwards
by the pressure of the flood waters.
E. C. Kneeland, a Pittsburgh scientist, explained today.
This phenomenon, he maintained, proves that the only permanent defense against floods is not a flood wall but an adequate reservoir system. When the surface river rises in flood stage, he explained, it does not mingle with the underground stream but increases pressure on it so that the clear underground waters are forced to rise and go where they can break through.

Arthur Mometer

Dig down, my friend, in those dirty jeans, and come up with a buck or two, for the need is great at the present time and some people are calling you. Some folks below where the rivers flow right up to the second floor, and the river didn't obey the song by staying away from the door. Their homes are wrecked and their clothes are gone, and they have to have food and shoes, but their chins are up for they know you'll help. There's none of them singing the blues. So dig, my friend, for a buck or two, and remember our luck up here where the flood was held at bay and our homes are dry, it's twenty-seven and clear.

Tennessee Is Likely To Act

Two Measures Before Legislature To Put Stop To Child Weddings

CONTROVERSY NOW INVOLVING STATE

(International News Service) SNEEDVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 3.—Widespread controversy in the Tennessee hill country threatened today as 22-year-old Charlie Johns vowed to defend his "right" to the love of his nine-year-old mountain "cradle bride."

While the little girl pleaded with him not to "let 'em take me away," the gangling bridegroom told her: "Ain't nobody goin' to take you away, honey."

Feeling ran high in the neighborhood as the legislature at Nashville considered two bills to prevent further child marriages in this state. And the bride's mother, Mrs. Lewis, defended the match by asking: "Maybe Eunice is a mite young, but what of it?"

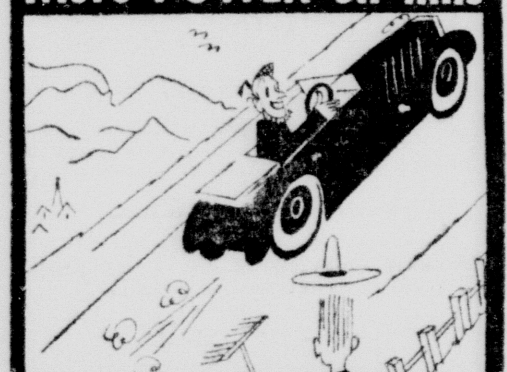

Rumored Caio Is Found In Chicago

Unconfirmed Story Locates One of Men Named By Francesco Romeo

From a source that is thought to be authoritative it was said today that Dominick Caio, acquitted of murder in 1906 in the Lawrence county courts has been located by the state in the city of Chicago, Ill., and that an effort would be made to bring him to New Castle to testify against Rocco Esposito in the March term.

Asked today if Caio would be brought back to New Castle, State Investigator Frank Costa would make no statement but admitted that they knew Caio was alive.

Whether or not he comes to New Castle will probably depend upon Caio himself.

In October, 1906, when Francesco Romeo was killed at New Castle Junction he made a dying statement in which he is reported as saying that Esposito and Caio had shot him. Caio was arrested at the time but in his trial put the blame on Esposito. Esposito was recently brought back from Kirkland Lake, Ontario, without extradition and has said that he had left New Castle before the murder of Romeo was done.

waters began their rise. Sirens called the weary rivermen from the cots to renew the fight against the murky flood waters.

Engineers predicted the Ohio will not rise more than fractionally when the crest, now in the vicinity of abandoned Paducah, Ky., arrives.

The city was further menaced by "sand boils" with last night began spouting geysers of muddy water high in the streets.

Emergency crews stemmed the flow of the gushers with sand bags. But the geysers, forced under the concrete seawall by the tremendous pressure of water, brought the fear the foundations may be undermined, causing the two and one-half mile long levee to settle and admit the torrent to the city, already 20 feet below the surface of the waters pounding at the levee.

St. Louis, Feb. 3.—The stage of the flood-swollen Ohio river at Cairo, Ill., at 6 a. m. today was 59.6, a rise of 1.1 of a foot in the past 24 hours. The U. S. weather bureau here reported today.

position with the General Sullivan Council, the scout board, through a special candidate interview committee, has considered applications from nearly a dozen scout executives and has conducted personal interviews with two. Mr. Green has been the choice of the board for Mr. Childs' successor.

At the scout office in the Greer building it was said that Mr. Green would come here March 15 and would be followed later by his family.

Will Administrate Program

As council executive he will direct the full program of the Boy Scouts of America in Lawrence county. The work has been without formal executive leadership since Mr. Childs' departure on May 24 of last year.

Heading the committee which has been directing the executive interviews is the Rev. A. M. Stump, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church and the 1937 president of the council. Serving with him were Scout Commissioner Ralph F. Davis and Hans N. Drio, this city, and Charles W. Carbeau and John H. Hough, Ellwood City.

Preparations for the approaching Boy Scout Week program here proceeded today and, with the announcement of Mr. Green's acceptance, President Stump predicted that "a banner year is ahead" for scouting locally.

Y. W. Ingathering Of New Members Discussed Tuesday

Annual Ingathering To Take Place March 5-16; New Plan Being Inaugurated

At Tuesday night's meeting of the Y. W. C. A. membership committee, preliminary to the annual ingathering of new members which will take place March 5-16, it was decided to change the plan of organization somewhat this year.

Each group of Y. W. C. A. workers who are members of the same church will be on the same team, and each group of workers who are members of the same Y. W. C. A. club will be on their own club's team. The church members will endeavor to increase the church membership in the association and the others will try to increase the club membership.

It was also decided to ask the Girl Reserve representatives on the membership committee to secure names of Girl Reserve mothers and their church affiliations. These names will be apportioned out to the Y. W. C. A. workers in their respective churches and the mothers will be asked to join.

The opening organization dinner will be on March 5 and the closing dinner on March 16. In between those dates the church groups will have separate luncheon-meetings when the program of the association will be demonstrated or explained.

The present membership of the Y. W. C. A. is 929. It is hoped that this number will be increased considerably with the establishment of the new system of ingathering.

Mrs. Charles T. Metzler is chairman in charge. Mrs. Fred Smith has been appointed secretary.

SIT-DOWN STRIKE TACTICS ATTACKED BY A. F. OF L.

on the strike scene and McGrady was ready to go if necessary.

Lewis arrived in Detroit today for a series of conferences with his strike lieutenants, headed by Homer S. Martin, president of the United Automobile workers, who are conducting the strike.

Statement On Sit-Down

John P. Frey, president of the big metal trades department of the federation, condemned the sit-down strike as illegal.

"The time has come for clear-thinking, and frank, straight-from-the-shoulder talking," he said. "If disaster is to be avoided, there must be a united, determined effort to protect the American trade union movement, and all that it stands for as a vital safeguard to labor's welfare and labor's rights."

Turning to the tactics of the CIO, Frey continued:

New policies and methods are being employed by international unions affiliated with the CIO. Sit-down strikes are advocated and put into effect. While not a new form of labor action, the extensive use of the sit-down strike is an importation from France where their application forced the most liberal government France has ever had, so far as labor is concerned, to make official action to suppress them.

Workers taking physical possession of manufacturing plants, is an importation from Italy. It was this method applied by Italian workmen which gave to Mussolini the opportunity of issuing those edicts which destroyed the voluntary trade unions of that country and led to the compulsory organizing of the Fascist unions controlled by the government.

"The theory of the so-called 'militant minority' has the hall mark of Moscow and was imported from Russia.

"The sit-down strike and the control of labor policy by a militant minority are deliberately intended to destroy self-government by trade unions, and set aside the principles of democratic self-government upon which the American trade union movement has been built up."

Usually there is only one horror to a generation, and youngsters hurt by the late depression don't remember knee-length skirts.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your bile system is poisoned and you feel sick and the world looks pink.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere laxative doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. EYES No. 14 in an educational series!

Nature's Plan vs. Man's Plan

For centuries man used his eyes for simple tasks performed out doors in brilliant sunlight.

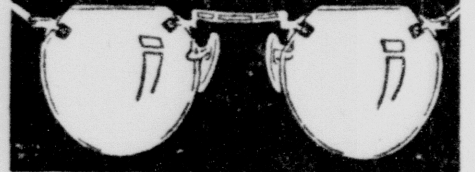

But today most of man's eye tasks are close ones, performed indoors, usually in dim light. And they continue far into the night, for artificial illumination has lengthened the day.

As a result, the keen clear vision nature knew man must have, has become sadly defective. Headaches, nervousness, and inefficient work results. Hundreds of people have defective vision without knowing it. The one way to be sure your sight is right, is to have your eyes examined.

New Burden For Government Seen

Flood Will Add Much To Relief Burden Of Nation It Is Indicated

NEW DEFICIENCY BILL IS FORECAST

By L. W. MEREDITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Encountering its fourth major national disaster in as many years—from at least two of which the nation has not yet recovered—the administration today faced the task of providing for a new burden of flood victims with unemployment and drought relief still of major proportions.

From the inherited depression, the government is still providing employment for approximately 3,000,000 persons.

From the drought of last year, more than 350,000 are receiving their sustenance from the federal government. And from the 1936 spring floods, money is still going out for rehabilitation.

Although the Red Cross now is carrying the chief burden of care for 932,000 flood refugees, of whom 774,600 have been driven from their homes, employment for tens of thousands will have to be provided by the government—more than 150,000 already have been put to work by WPA—in the clean-up and rehabilitation campaign.

In addition, millions of dollars worth of federal property and federally-financed projects have been destroyed or badly damaged.

Need New Deficiency Bill.

To meet the burden, another deficiency appropriation is considered by departmental heads as necessary. How much of the $790,000,000 work relief fund carried in the pending $834,000,000 deficiency bill will have to be used for the flood emergency is only a guess, relief officials said.

But the $790,000,000 figure was intended to carry the emergency work relief needs of WPA and resettlement through to the end of the fiscal year, June 30 next, without figuring the flood. The figure was established on a basis of providing work for 2,500,000 unemployed, although the work program was carrying 3,001,000 in December, when the appropriation was planned.

The RA, providing grants averaging $20 a month for 359,691 families in December, now is carrying more than 150,000 more families—and its funds were practically exhausted yesterday.

WPA, with 2,187,944 on its rolls, is now running on borrowed time with its funds all expended or obligated by the last week of January.

The $790,000,000 appropriation was planned to carry this load, which WPA Administrator Hopkins said he "hoped" would be reduced to an average of 2,500,000 through June.

Now, with 150,000 WPA workers already employed on the flood protection and clean-up work, and every available man to be put to work as the flood waters recede, tens of thousands of dollars of this emergency money will have to be used on that work, reducing the available funds for the regular work of WPA and RA.

Prove Advertising Merits In Class

Advertised Products Come First In Psychology Class At Westminster College

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 3.—The old-time slogan, "it pays to advertise" was proven to be correct in psychology class experiments at Westminster College.

In class tests, it was discovered that invariably the most highly advertised products were associated in the minds of the students first, when asked to name in rapid order an insurance company, an electric clock, a soap, a breakfast food, and other highly advertised products.

The advertising experiment was one of many types of experiments, including color blindness tests, relation between hand-writing and character tests, relations of dreams to external stimuli experiments, and the psychology of color projects.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

MOST women at some period of their lives need a tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The young woman who suffers from monthly pains and nervousness due to functional irregularities, the expectant mother who has lost appetite, or the middle-aged woman who experiences "heat flashes" will find this "Prescription" a dependable tonic. Read what Mrs. Ethel Stiver of 401 McHenry Ave., New Castle, Pa., said: "I find Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a splendid tonic for women. It is fine to relieve headaches and pains and functional irregularities, and seems to promote an appetite."

Something new is being established in the state, a waiting list for insane patients. The state has issued orders that no more patients can be taken in the hospitals for mental cases until there is room. Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has already received such notice from Parview. Torrence is sending 600 patients back into the counties of the state and four of them will be returned to this county. In the future, at least for some time persons declared to be of unsound mind must be kept in this county if you can suggest a place to put them. There are two already here waiting disposition.

In a compilation of figures put out each year by the Pennsylvania Economic Council, received by County Controller Frank W. Hill, the cost of government to the various counties of the state is shown in addition to the financial standing of the counties.

One of the publications has just been received which shows the cost of government in Lawrence County for the year 1934. This includes only county, city, borough, township, and schools. For that year Lawrence County spent $3,569,750 divided as follows: County, $791,679; City, $721,209; Boroughs, $287,679; Townships, $79,123; schools (city and county) $1,690,060. In other words it cost approximately $35 for every man, woman and child. These figures do not include the state and federal costs here.

Another delay by the state. The poor budgets, printed for the Department of Internal Affairs, have not been received by the county controller. In a letter it is explained the printer making up the forms did not follow the copy and the entire supply has to be printed over at the expense of the printer.

Letters of administration have been issued by Register and Recorder William R. Hanna to Mary Jones as executrix in the estate of Mary O'Neill, late of Union township who died December 21, 1936.

In the office of Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar two suits have been entered against Fred J. Thomas and Mary G. Thomas who operate the Rex Cafe on West Washington street. The first suit is by Alda Stafford for $1008.50 damages claimed from a fight which is alleged to have taken place in the cafe of the defendant on the night of October 24, 1936. With her husband, Vernon Stafford and C. R. Forney the plaintiff alleges that she went into the cafe to get some food and while in there a fight broke out. Somebody tossed a heavy glass which crashed and fragments hit the plaintiff in the face. C. R. Forney also files a suit arising out of the same incidents. He claims that he was knocked unconscious and asks for $1129.25. In each case $1,000 is set as compensation for pain, suffering and humiliation.

Thursday of this week is the last day to file sales of property by the sheriff, to be sold in March. Already 22 have been entered.

A commission in lunacy is being asked for by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard to inquire into the sanity of Pasquale George, now in jail for shooting of B. & O. chief clerk, Sam Ross.

In order to aid the state revenue agent Frank Bonacci and also to expedite getting the records for the county commissioners, a girl has been placed at the desk in the lobby of the court house. The county tax income should show a fat increase this year due to the personal property tax of four mills. It is estimated that between ten and fifteen million dollars will be declared that have hitherto not been reported. At four mills this would mean between $40,000 and $60,000 to the county.

Competitive tests, campus tours, Little Theatre program, musical numbers, dining in fraternity houses and college dormitories, and the Bethany-Westminster game will make up the varied program of the day, following morning and afternoon greetings in the Memorial chapel by President Galbreath.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING OF MEN'S GARDEN CLUB

Men's Garden club held one of its most enthusiastic meetings on Tuesday evening in the studio of Professor C. G. Lindner on East Washington street, which will be the meeting place hereafter unless otherwise stated.

Each of the members present participated in the program, giving detailed discussions of their favorite flowers and shrubs. Many points of instruction and interest were brought out, new developments in culture, or discoveries of new plants.

Important business transactions conducted by the president, J. W. Anderson, concerned the appointment of a committee which will call upon council Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, with a view towards protecting and beautifying the Diamond, or public square, which is considered by the Men's club as the show window of New Castle. Special attention will be given this matter in the spring.

It was reported that the article in Monday's News concerning the donation to the Red Cross was somewhat misleading, as the donation was not made by the Men's club alone, but rather with the cooperation of Mrs. S. A. Black and her family at East Brook, who served the supper Sunday following the hike, the donation idea being originally Mrs. S. A. Black's.

March meeting of the Garden club will take place on the second, and it will be important, as officers will be nominated for the ensuing year.

Vempo Club

Cards were played at two tables by members of the Vempo club assembled on Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. A. Weaver on West Cherry street. Those not caring for the contests, sat about and visited. Prizes were won by Mrs. S. F. Turk and Mrs. A. W. Scott.

JUNIOR B. P. W. HEARS TALK BY MR. RASHID

An intensely interesting meeting of Tuesday evening was held by members of the Junior Business and Professional Women's club at a local tea room, when they had the privilege of hearing Samuel Rashid, an authority on rug making.

After the serving of the menu, Mrs. George J. Cather, hostess, introduced the guest speaker who held their close attention with fascinating facts concerning "Oriental Rugs." On this subject Mr. Rashid told how many processes are connected with the making of a single rug, carrying his audience over into Persia, where he wove the story.

President Miss Sylvia Lee Martin conducted a short business period when plans were discussed regarding their formal dinner-dance on March 19. The committee appointed to complete the details includes Betty Ramsey, Betty O'Donnell and Becky Carson. The place will be announced.

It was unanimously voted to send a contribution to the Red Cross organization to aid in the flood relief work.

On Sunday morning, February 14, the club will hold their initiation breakfast at The Castleton Hotel, when eleven new names will be added to the membership. Miss Lucille Emery is chairman of the committee in charge.

Hope To Gain Flood Quota At Friday's Party

Several Thousand Dollars Still Needed For County's Share For Relief Work

RECORD THROING IS LOOKED FOR

With several hundred people on the various committees in charge of the big community party sponsored by Mayor Charles E. McGrath and a group of interested citizens, working feverishly today to complete arrangements for the event, indications point to the fact that the Cathedral will be thronged on Friday evening for the big charity entertainment.

It will be one of the biggest things attempted here in some time, the general committee advises, and folks who miss it will have missed something worth while. There will be entertainment of every kind and description provided that evening, something to suit the fancy of the most fastidious.

In addition to the program in the auditorium, the dancing, bingo, etc., there will be other special entertainment, it was announced today. Stan Treser has been placed in charge of the midway, which will be a special feature, it is stated.

The clubwomen are going to make candy and baked goods and will sell it during the evening. This feature is under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. H. R. McCulloch is president. A general appeal is made by Mrs. McCulloch to those women who are not affiliated with organizations participating under the auspices of the Federation to bring candy and baked goods to the Cathedral Friday afternoon or evening, where it will be gratefully accepted.

The Red Cross fund today stands around $5,500, yesterday's total having been swelled by the contribution of $200 from The News company and the personal contribution of $75 by Rufus C. Patterson, in addition to a number of other generous contributions. Around $3,000 is needed to reach the quota assigned to the county, however, and it is hoped to raise this amount with the party on Friday evening, all expenses for which have been underwritten by the generosity of New Castle citizens, business firms and fraternal and social organizations. The entire proceeds will be net and will go to the relief of the flood sufferers.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

Education has been narrow in its scope, barely including human relationship in its endeavors. It has been lost, as a rule, in mere mechanics, in things easily measured. About the learner, how he feels when he tries to learn, the feelings and emotions of the teacher in the classroom, their relationships to each other, and their relationships, in turn, to the family and other close associates of the pupil, "scientific education" has had very little concern. It is going to have in the future. It must have if human progress is to be realized.

"Just simple friendliness in the classroom," said Dr. Ryan, "is the center of good mental hygiene there."

Wolves' Party Tuesday Is Gay Social Occasion

More Than 100 Persons Share Enjoyable Program In The Castleton

Tuesday evening's annual dinner and dance of the Wolves club and their friends was tops in brilliant social spectacles. More than 100 persons gathered in the attractively arranged ballroom of The Castleton to enjoy one of the most successful and gayest social occasions held here in sometime.

The group formed in the lobby of the hotel and entered the ballroom to the strains of a popular orchestra. For the next hour and a half the gathering enjoyed a luscious chicken dinner. During the serving of dinner the talented Harvey Bell, of this district, led the group in singing.

After welcoming the group, Carm Sacco introduced D. D. Valensi, chairman of the entertainment committee. Mr. Valensi in turn presented Cam Sacco, 1937 president of the Wolves club. President Sacco then introduced the board of directors. Big brother Wolves were revealed, causing a carload of laughter.

The program continued with the presentation of one of the finest floor shows seen here in a long time.

Dancing was in vogue until 12 o'clock. During the course of the occasion, a number of clever novelties and trinkets were dispensed, adding much merriment. As was said previously, the social occasion was easily one of the most successful held here in recent months and one of the gayest parties given by the popular Wolves club in some years. The committee saw to it that nothing was left undone.

Quite a number of out of town guests gathered for the party.

From rooms in the New Castle hospital, Frank Summers and Sam Ross, two of the most active members in the organization, who are confined to the South Side hospital, telephoned and said they were getting along nicely and regretted the fact that they could not be present.

New York State Has Child Bride

Case Of 12-Year-Old Bride Is Revealed In Watertown, N. Y. District

(International News Service) WATERTOWN, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Upright citizens of this community who pointed the finger of scorn at Tennessee officials for permitting marriage of a nine-year-old girl to a 22-year-old mountaineer, weren't so critical of those Tennessee officials today. Not after they learned they had a child bride right in their midst—not quite as young as little Eunice Winstead Johns, but far too young, in their opinion, to embark upon such a dangerous venture as matrimony.

Right out of a clear sky, Watertown residents learned that less than a month ago 12-year-old Leona Elizabeth Roshia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Roshia, became the wife of 19-year-old Stanley S. Backus in a ceremony at Carthage.

Parents of both children knew nothing of the wedding plans but once they learned that Leona and Stanley were wed, they didn't waste any time in giving the parental blessing.

Bill To Speed Up Collections Of Taxes Signed

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—The administration's self-assessment tax law, designed to speed up collections of all but bank and trust company taxes, joined the commonwealth's enacted statutes today. The measure, sponsored by Rep. Joseph Omsky, D. Philadelphia, was signed by Gov. George H. Earle after final passage by the legislature yesterday. The new law makes taxes self-assessing and due and payable on the date tax reports are required to be filed. Adjustments may then be made later. Bank and trust company taxes are excluded, however.

Big Attendance Of Leaguers At New Wilmington

Attendance At Mid-Winter
Institute In M. E. Church
Above That Of Other Years

CLASSES ARE TO BE ENDED TONIGHT

Fifteen new members were added to the roll Tuesday evening at the mid-winter institute of the New Castle Sub-District Epworth Leagues being held at the Methodist Episcopal church in New Wilmington, making the attendance far above that of previous years. The final session will take place tonight.

After the opening devotional period led by Rev. Earl Jennings of the Pulaski Methodist church and members of his league, the guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. Carrie Jeffery Roberts, was introduced. Mrs. Roberts chose as her subject "The Responsibility of Youth To The Home", in which she suggested some of the ideals that young people should have in their present homes and in their future homes.

Beginning with the small child she stressed the formation of correct habits, and learning as he grows older, self-control. Character must be built so that young people can assume part of the responsibility of the home.

And in conclusion the point was brought out that one must aim at something fine and beautiful and then work for it, for one can not have any form of betterment without hard work.

Later in the evening, a social period was held in the basement of the church, during which a series of games were enjoyed, Ruth Buchanan, fourth vice president of the Sub-District in charge. Refreshments were served by the New Wilmington League.

Paducah—Abandoned By 34,000 Residents

FLOOD WATERS IN BUSINESS SECTION; STATUE IS OF CHIEF PADUCAH

Paducah, Ky., one of the most beautiful of river cities, was entirely evacuated by its 34,000 inhabitants as flood waters of the lower Ohio river inundated the entire city. Water in some streets reached a depth of 18 feet. This is a scene in the center of the business district, with the postoffice at the right. A statue of Chief Paducah mournfully views "his" stricken city.

LEWIS CONFERS WITH KNUDSEN ON AUTO STRIKE

acceptance of an invitation from Governor Murphy to attend the conference held today.

It was the first time Lewis, chief of the C. I. O., and any General Motors official met at a conference table.

The meeting got under way about 9:40 a. m. in the courtroom office of Judge George Murphy, brother of the Michigan governor. It came only a few minutes after the governor made the bald announcement that the two men would confer, and less than two hours after Lewis' arrival from Washington.

Meeting Brief

Almost an hour later, the conference ended, with Gov. Murphy announcing:

"There has been an interesting, friendly and helpful conference. There will be another conference here today. I have no further comment."

The most direct presidential intervention in the auto strikes thus far came as Knudsen headed for the conference, arranged by Gov. Murphy. Accepting Gov. Murphy's invitation to attend the conference, Knudsen said he was attending "in accordance with the wish of the president of the United States."

His statement was set out in a letter last night to Gov. Murphy. He also wrote:

"The wish of the president of the United States leaves no alternative."

Hopes For New Truce
At 3 p. m.—the time Gov. Murphy hopes for a new truce—authorities in Flint, according to earlier announcements, were ready to clear General Motors two plants there of sit-down strikers, as ordered by Judge Paul V. Gadola's exaction injunction.

Also ready were several hundred sit-downers, determined in an announced "death stand" to die if necessary if armed force is used in an attempt to carry out court orders.

Eviction Situation

Flint, Mich., Feb. 3.—Sheriff Thomas Wolcott could not be reached immediately to learn if he planned to evict sit-down strikers as ordered by the court at 3 p. m. Reporters sought to determine whether he would carry out the injunction in view of Gov. Murphy's statement he expected a settlement of the strike by 3 p. m.

Lewis Silent

Detroit, Feb. 3.—John L. Lewis, chief of the C. I. O., today refused to say on his arrival here whether he would order peaceful evacuation of sit-down automobile strikers in General Motors plants or allow them to carry out their announced "death stand."

Lewis, arriving here to assume generalship in the struggle between the United Auto Workers Union, a C. I. O. affiliate, and the big motors corporation, was scowling and belligerent as he stepped down from the Washington train.

Reporters breaking through a crowd of hundreds of unionists who had gathered to cheer their chief hurled two questions at Lewis. The first was whether he would order sit-down strikers holding 20 G. M. body plants at Flint to obey a court order and leave the plants by 3 p. m. or allow them to try to hold the plants by force.

"I have nothing to say," he replied, "until I confer with union leaders."

Two new directors were named to the board, Dr. William J. Hinkson and Dr. David L. Perry being elected to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignation of Dr. W. C. Burchfield and Tom A. Meyer.

The annual report showed a splendid accomplishment during the past year, and the society made plans to carry on the work in the elimination of tuberculosis for another year as they have in the past, with the utmost vigor.

Make Plans For Uniontown Trial

Margiotti And Aides Map
Out Prosecution, Defense Attorneys Also Are Busy

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 3.—On separate floors in the Grant building, one of Pittsburgh's tallest skyscrapers, opposing counsel in Fayette county's sensational "third degree" murder case today made their last minute plans for the trial which is scheduled to open next Monday at Somerset.

As Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, special prosecutor of the 12 men indicted in the case, met with his staff on one floor, John C. Duggan, Jr., chief of the defense counsel, met with his aides just one floor above.

Meanwhile, the disquieting news came that Dr. S. A. Baltz, Fayette county coroner, one of the key witnesses in the case, was seriously ill at the veterans' hospital in Aspinwall and probably will not be able to make the journey to court. Baltz was indicted with four others as accessories in an attempt to conceal the manner in which Frank C. Monaghan, 64, a hotelkeeper, met his death while being questioned in the Fayette county courthouse.

LOCATE BODY OF MISSOURI DOCTOR MISSING FOR WEEK

the woods he showed them the body behind a tangled mat of undergrowth and briar where it might have lain for years without discovery.

Shot Five Times

The doctor had been shot twice in the head and three times near the heart. His left glove was off and he was still clutching a checkbook in his ungloved hand, the officers said.

He had been dead for almost a week.

Connolly refused to say that Kenyon had confessed the kidnapping and murder, but ordered the youth taken back to the Willow Springs jail and held under close guard.

Other officers in the posse, however, stated without hesitance: "We have the man who did the job and it was only a one man job."

Kenyon, they revealed, does not have a previous police record, but during the questioning did admit that last November he had kidnapped an automobile salesman in Rolla, Mo., and robbed him of his car and $2 in cash.

Kidnaping Week Ago

Dr. Davis, who was president of the South Central Missouri Medical Association and a prominent figure in local politics, was 66 years old.

His kidnaping occurred a week ago Tuesday afternoon. The doctor taken back to his office and told his secretary that a Mr. James had met him on the street and asked that he attend a patient outside the city.

The doctor said he would not return to the office before dinner.

That was the last that was heard from him until Thursday when his wife received a crudely scrawled note demanding $5,000 ransom for his return. The note set forth the money should be paid with four $1,000 bills and the remainder in smaller currency. It provided that the ransom be carried along one of the highways near Willow Springs and dropped from an automobile at the sight of a white flag.

A Federal agent took a dummy package along the route Saturday night but failed to see the signal in the dense fog.

Sunday, Connolly revealed today, the family of Dr. Davis received a second note, but the contents were not revealed.

From the condition of the body police estimated that the doctor already had been killed when both notes were written.

It is believed the kidnaper had become frightened even as the doctor offered to write out a check for $5,000 and fired in a frenzy of fear.

'Y' TOURNAMENT RIOT OF FUN FOR OVER 70 YOUTHS

Seventy and more Y. M. C. A. young men last night participated in one of the merriest basketball tournaments ever to be staged on the "Y" gym floor. It had been heralded as "unique"—and it was all of that.

Eight five-man teams, playing basketball but governed by hockey ball rules, romped the gym as spectators roared. Everything was done impromptu-fashion and when the games were over the scoreboard showed the group called the "Tin Ears" had won. There were no prizes, but there was lots of fun and frivolity long to be remembered.

Dr. David Connolly discussed social diseases in a talk which closed the evening's program. Refreshments were served as the finale.

Students Test Value Of Colors

White Is Hardest On Eyes,
While Purple Induces
Sleep Tests Reveal

BLOND GIRLS IN RED DANGEROUS

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 2.—Of all colors, white is the hardest on the eyes, and purple the best color to make persons go to sleep, according to experiments conducted in psychology classes at Westminster College.

Blue, it was found out, is the most calming and soothing of all colors, and blue-green the easiest on the eyes. Tests proved that men were more susceptible to color than women. Because of the law of associations, students decided, a girl wearing a sheer white evening gown, long and flowing, has a better chance to be proposed to than a girl in a red evening gown, because of the constant association of white with moonlight, and of moonlight with romance, and of romance with marriage.

Because of the startling clash in colors, the college experimenters decided that a blonde-haired girl in a red dress looked a little too dangerous to the masculine eye. Wine of all colors, can be worn by more women effectively than any other color.

On the basis of examples drawn from campus collegians, the coeds decided that men who wore blue neckties were to be trusted more than men wearing red neckties. Men and women choosing red as their favorite color were classified as being more fickle and undependable than men and women who chose blue.

AROUND CITY HALL

Earl Wimer, controller for the city of New Castle shed some interesting information today. While poring through his books it was found that the city's wage bill for 1936, amounted to $317,971.16. This included the cost of labor engaged on city paving when half the wage was paid in cash and the balance applied to taxes. General revenue amounted to $538,718.73. There was extended from general revenue, $540,356.44, according to Wimer.

The controller, Wimer, in going through collections, said that the city solicitor's office collected in delinquent taxes and paving and grading liens, $139,952.83. The office also collected from $745.67 in compensation for injuries sustained by city employees.

There was $217,281.47 in certificates outstanding January 1, 1936, according to Controller Wimer. Of this amount $147,195.26, was redeemed which left a balance of $70,086.71, at the end of 1936. Most of the certificates were redeemed through two bond issues. The bonds draw smaller interest than the certificates, hence the issues.

Wimer's system shows the exact cost of every office and department of the city. He was a member of the committee which arranged for the new system of budget making in third class cities. At present he is engaged in auditing and compiling a report for the year just ended.

Scientists now believe they can take the glare out of automobile headlights. But nothing will remove it from the eyes of pedestrians.

Do you know that Cloe, a post office in Jefferson county, was named for a girl who worked in a small general store?

A village of Canoe Creek had its general store the same as all small towns had. A girl named Cloe was working as a clerk in this store. When the population of the town was large enough to make application for a post office, it was learned that there was another Canoe Creek in Pennsylvania and that the town's name could not be used as the name of the post office. Because the girl clerk in the store was very popular among the citizens of the community, someone suggested to name the post office "Cloe." The same pronunciation as the girl's name but spelled by omitting the letter "h".

It was a dead man, C. van der Merwe, of Rhodes, South Africa, who summoned aid for his two injured companions in an automobile accident, when his body pressed against the horn, the continuous sound attracting the attention of a farmer.

New York Has Many Eccentrics

Even Sociologists Are Puzzled As To How "Nuts" Of Midtown New York Exist

SMOKED GLASSES ANNOY M'INTYRE

(By O. O. McIntyre)

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Midtown is sprinkled with "assorted nuts" whose eccentricities seem to skirt the borderline of complete goodness yet who are in reality quite harmless. They include the long-haired, barefoot and many over-coated, drab and semi-dazed human flexures in the shifting kaleidoscope.

How and where they live is a mystery, even to sociologists. They are rarely public charges and are seldom alms seekers. And the police blotter seldom lists their names. Now and then they are taken to the hospitals where snuff fortunes are found sewn in their tatters.

Most of Broadway knows The Pin Man. A bewhiskered anachronism in beret and long overcoat with a moth eaten fur collar. He edges the curbs, scanning the sidewalks and gutters for stray pins and uses the front of his overcoat as a pin cushion. There are so many he looks to be wearing armor.

Late at night they seep out to scavenge the garbage pails and the corner refuse baskets. They show no embarrassment in rummaging. Some carry sticks with spiked ends or a gunny sack. Like other unclean birds of the night, they vanish with dawn.

Young folk are inspiring with their enthusiasms. One of the breezier sort barged in today between the run of afternoon engagements. She had lunched at the Algonquin and was gurgly with thrills. She had met Carl Van Vechten, who sports a pair "of divine giraffe skin gloves." She sat only two tables away from Helen Hayes and, going to a telephone booth, plumped snack dab into Sylvia Sidney wearing smoked glasses. And so she trailed such names as Adela Rogers St. John, Hendrik Van Loon and the Alfred Lunts, Oh, youth!

Incidentally, this "smoked glasses" gesture, launched by the coy and reluctant Garbo is getting rather messy. A student of moeurs tells of seeing three "wearers of the glass daskly" at the showiest of lunch bazaars the other noon. The truth: For most of us smoked spectacles are a badge of ballyhoo, the plume of a parast. They have come to mean in the public thought, "I'm somebody of importance—so get an eyeful." It is in effect like tipping with finger to lips while waving the other hand for the band to play.

Statisticians estimate that an average of 500,000 people scuttle through the Grand Central terminal every week day. Most are regular rabbit commuters but 100,000 are comparative strangers and 20,000 are those who pass out the exits for first squint at the big town. There is one invariable gesture the first timer indulges when he reaches the sidewalk and that is to look suddenly up. The sky scraper influence!

A new addition to traveling comfort at Grand Central in a news reel theater on a cocktail bar. Adjoining will be a cocktail bar. One of the conspicuous accessories of the project is a giant clock so customers, in the excitement of watching, will not miss their trains. All of which is reminding that despite precautions there are about 500 people daily who come to with a sudden start and race toward their train, only to find gates closed.

I used to be one of those whippersnappers who, on a train, invariably saw some stunning girl with whom it would be pleasant to talk—but it was always the other fellow who did something about it. Usually he was a gallant wearing an Elk pin. Consequently I'm continuously dismayed at the modern approach of youth. Near the Ambassador today a collegiate chap jaywalked across the street to a rather special number and inquired: "Are you as lonesome as I this afternoon?" She smiled quizzically and he continued, "What do you say to a stroll in the glorious sunshine?" And offering her a cigarette and a light and lighting up himself—they walked off arm in arm—as though they had known each other a long, long time. Her lips bent sweetly, invitingly. In a few moments they seemed utterly enraptured. Love on the wing, indeed.

Musing: I like to watch dancers on a jammed dance floor. Especially those dancing boys who dupe up their salterello with a fancy fling and then glance at you with a beam as much as to inquire: "How am I doing?" You know, just had a lesson at Murray's.

Window Display In Library Branch For Boy Scout Week

Merit Badge Work Stressed In Anniversary Week Display At South Side

In readiness for Boy Scout Anniversary week, which will be celebrated locally from Saturday, Feb. 6, to Saturday, Feb. 13, the boys in troop 55 of the Trinity church have prepared a very interesting display in the window of the south side branch of the free public library.

This display contains many pieces of handcraft and stresses merit badge work. Bound copies of the merit badge pamphlets, which may be secured at your library, are on display in the window.

All of the pieces of handcraft work on display in the window have been made by Scouts in troop 55 to secure a merit badge. Several merit badges are also displayed in the window.

A complete scout's outfit is arranged in the window and shows just exactly what a fully equipped Scout should have in his possession.

Your Income Tax In A Nutshell

EXEMPTIONS ALLOWED COUPLES MARRIED DURING TAXABLE YEAR

Taxpayers should note that under the Revenue Act of 1936 the credit for dependents as well as the personal exemption is required to be prorated where a change of status occurs during the taxable year and that these credits are allowable not only for the purpose of computing the normal tax, but also the surtax.

A fractional part of a month is to be disregarded unless it amounts to more than a month. In which case it is considered a month.

For example, a single man and a single woman, who were married on July 20, 1936, and were living together on the last day of the taxable year, may file a joint return. If they file their return or returns on the basis of the calendar year, they would be entitled to a personal exemption of $2,208.34, which is seven-twelfths of $1,000 for the husband and single, plus seven-twelfths of $1,000 for the wife, plus five-twelfths of $2,500 for the period during which they were married. If separate returns are filed, each is entitled to a personal exemption of $1,104.17, which is seven-twelfths of $1,000, plus one-half of five-twelfths of $2,500. If during the year 1936 the husband or the wife had the status of the head of a family prior to their marriage he or she would be entitled to his or her prorate share of the personal exemption of $2,500 allowed the head of a family for the period prior to their marriage. However, if during the year 1936 the husband or the wife had the status of the head of a family prior to their marriage he or she would be entitled to his or her prorate share of the personal exemption of $2,500 allowed the head of a family for the period prior to their marriage. However, if during the year 1936 the husband or the wife had the status of the head of a family prior to their marriage he or she would be entitled to his or her prorate share of the personal exemption of $2,500 allowed the head of a family for the period prior to their marriage.

The joint personal exemption allowable in the case of a couple who were married and living together during the entire year may not exceed $2,500.

If a child under 18 years of age and dependent on the parent for support reaches the age of 18 years during the taxable year, the credit of $400 for a dependent is required to be prorated in the same manner as the personal exemption.

For example, should the child's birthday fall on June 30, the parent would be entitled to claim $200 credit for the dependent child—that is, one-half of $400. The same rule applies to other dependents where a change of status occurs during the taxable year.

Moscow, Russia, has tripled its ice cream output since last year.

CONSIDER SLUM CLEARANCE IN PENNSYLVANIA

Call Conference At Harrisburg

State And Federal Officials To Consider Program For State

EXPECT FEDERAL FUNDS WILL AID

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—State and federal officials today put their heads together to formulate a slum clearance and low cost housing program for Pennsylvania.

This afternoon, a conference was to be held in the governor's office between legislative, administrative and federal officials out of which is expected to develop a concrete plan to purge the commonwealth of slums, sources of disease, delinquency and crime.

Federal funds for this were expected with the enactment of the Wagner low cost housing bill.

Gov. George H. Earle pointed to the slum problem in his biennial message to the legislature. "Every possible encouragement should be given to public housing projects," he said.

To Create Housing Authorities
Four bills are shortly expected to be introduced by members of the Philadelphia contingent, expected later to receive the administration stamp of approval.

In substance, they create housing authorities in all counties, cities of the first and second class, and third class cities with a population exceeding 50,000.

Each authority would have the right of eminent domain and construct and operate housing projects at low cost.

A state housing board would be established to administer the program, and to supervise "limited dividend housing corporations."

Sacrifices Are Made By Donors

Boy Gives Christmas Dollar To Flood Sufferers, Chapter Learns

GROUP FOREGOES DINNER PARTY

Mad tales of sacrifices, some of them real ones, are being told by the Lawrence county chapter, in connection with the receipt of donations for the flood sufferers in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys.

One little boy, Duane Johnston of Worthington township, brought in a shiny big dollar which he had received for Christmas, and which he had been saving to purchase something nice for himself.

One woman, who is a WPA worker, and receives but a small amount of money, said that she and her children had agreed to do without meat and fruit last Sunday, and to give this money to the flood sufferers. She did not wish her name to be mentioned as she said that people might think it queer of her to be on the WPA and be able to give to charity.

Over at Morgan & Burrows automobile agency, a contest had been in progress and the losers were to take the winners to Pittsburgh to a dinner and theater. They gave the cost, $60, to the flood sufferers.

The pupils of the sixth grade at Lincoln and Garfield school brought in their pennies, nickels and dimes and gave a total of $3.

A splendid job was done in the Bessemer district which turned in $181.90. The Girl Scouts, under the leadership of Eleanor Throop, collected a large amount of this, while Miss June Shoup also received a large amount at the Bessemer police station, where she was stationed to receive contributions.

Washington Man Faces Charges For $11,000 Shortage

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—Carl Smith, Washington, Pa., was ordered arrested today by Attorney Charles J. Margiotti on charges of an account shortage totaling $11,000 in connection with the closed Washington Trust Company.

Smith, who is secretary of the Washington County Democratic committee, failed to account for the sum which he collected in rents for the receiver of the Trust Company, according to Margiotti.

The shortage was discovered by auditors for the closed bank division of the banking department, the attorney general announced, and Smith failed to supply the money when a demand was made.

Denies Charges
Washington, Pa., Feb. 3.—Carl Smith, a local realtor, today denied the charges made in Harrisburg by Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti that he was illegally withholding $11,000 in rents collected for receivers of the closed Washington Trust Company.

Instead, Smith charged the commonwealth through the state banking department was indebted to him to the extent of $15,000 and he was unable to bring suit because of the virtual impossibility of obtaining consent from the legislature to sue the commonwealth.

Arrest Fugitive From Road Camp

Leroy Carr, colored, was arrested today by Chief of Detectives Shou-walter and Patrolman Hanna on receipt of information from the federal bureau of identification, department of justice, Washington, that Carr had escaped from a road camp at Moundsville, W. Several days ago he was arrested on suspicion. The chief of detectives took his fingerprints and sent them to Washington. Carr was set free at the time, but a tab kept on his movements. When his police record was returned here today the officers went to South Mercer street, near Division street, and took him into custody.

NEW CASTLE LOSES TO AMBRIDGE HIGH 31-19

Third Defeat For Locals In Section Play

Koszela And Nocera Carry Burden Of Offensive Attack For New Castle

ZIOLOWSKI IS AMBRIDGE STAR

New Castle High School "Red Hurricane" basketball team was practically right out of the Section Three W. P. I. A. L. race at Ambridge last night 31 to 19. The "Bridgers" led by their ace Felix Ziolkowski handed the locals their worst defeat in several years. It was the third time this year that red and blacks have been on the losing end of the score in the sectional games.

Ambridge led at the first period 7 to 5. The end of the first half found the Ruzenstians in the van 15 to 10. "Cash" Koszela and Vic Nocera supplied the New Castle field goals. Adams made three fouls in the first half. The "Bridgers" were led by Yerega the forward who used to play center and by Swezey and Ziolkowski.

Ambridge Always Ahead
The end of the third period it was 24 to 18 in favor of the Ambridge boys and it looked for a time as if the locals might get going. In the final period the New Castle team made one point and watched the Ambridge make seven more points to grab it off 31 to 19.

Eddie "Bus" Strausbaugh who injured his ankle last Saturday in the New Brighton game played for a few minutes with his ankle well taped up. Little "Cash" Koszela made six of the points and Nocera made nine points. Adams made three fouls. Ziolkowski with 10 points led the Ambridge team, with Yerega and Swezey making six points apiece.

New Castle has been defeated by Allegheny, New Brighton and Ambridge in the section. They have defeated Butler, Beaver Falls, New Brighton and Ellwood City. Ellwood City High will play here on Friday night in another sectional engagement.

Some Lines From Yesteryear

Twenty-four years ago Batting Ferry, 133, this city, and Billy Griffith, 140, Erie, fought a six-round no-decision bout at Meadville. Tom Kennedy recalled the Gunther-Magnus fight of more than a score years ago in a pow-wow recently. Jack Douglas recalls when at Columbus in 1911 fought Tony Lyons, another picture side song artist, but using the same song. Recall the Emmett Rocco-Sailor Maxted fight at Centennial field and the Fritz Otto-Clemens fight with 13 knock-downs at the bowl. "Luby" Richards, I. A. A. hit the fence at Cascade ball park three times in one time. "Teedee" Mack, who at one time was Romeo Pacelli's strategy board, is bartering here. Vius Conti was prominent in sports 20 years ago. He is quite a singer. Lere was a floor team, the Castle Five. Kraft, Hartman, Hess, the late Charlie Gilliam, Hood, Slovinsky, W. Gensinger and Kroen. Remember the Dan Dailey-Tony Rocco fight at Humbert hall? Johnny McCoy was the first to install an outdoor miniature golf course. It was on the North Hill. Talking about basketball, Coen, Bill Bechtel, Frasier, Hoekins, Sam Richards and Len Friedman (now a doctor) knew their game. The late Harry Greb and George Chip boxed in the Coliseum and previous to Chip fighting Les Darcy in Australia. Young Reno and Louis Severi fought hurricane bouts here. Johnny Datto fought a gamster the night he met Jack McFarland. Marcellas won the Independent football title in 1930. Their chief rival was Coton. Patsy Murphy was a fighter here around 1912. Frankie Merlino of the South Sids was a husky bantam. They say Jimmy Dunn was the only fighter of the foremost rank who was born in New Castle. All the others came here from other places. Bill Porter, first baseman, was one of the better first basemen. Rarely did Frank Mills fail to catch a high foul. Charlie Conway, outfielder, was a popular player here. Aronney Charlie Ross was basketball captain at Ne-Co-Hi and Tip Richards captained the Red and Black grid machine. The late Mike Dugan, father of Tommy, could take care of himself in the ring. The late Henry Goodberg was a baseball team backer and a judge of boxing.

TEAM OF 1908.
Italian A. A. in 1903 won 12 and lost six games. Tony Richards was manager and Joe Chill was captain. A feature game of the season was the 18-inning 3-2 victory by the I. A. A. over Brier Hill club of Youngstown. The I. A. A. scored two runs in the second and Brier Hill knotted the score in the third. A pitchers' battle then ensued. Both twirlers received faithful support. Ed (Mush) O'Brien pitched for the I. A. A. and Evans hurled for Brier Hill. In the last half of the 18th Tony D. Richards' fly to left was speared. Punio singled over short and was sacrificed to second by "Luby" Richards. Punio stole third and scored on Dave Bullano's single to left. The I. A. A. lineup: T. D. Richards, 3b; J. Fair, rf; Joe Punio, cf; L. Richards, 2b; D. Bullano, ss; F. Can-diotto, cf; P. Capitola, lf; Charles O'Brien, lb; Joe Chill, c; and Ed (Mush) O'Brien, p.

Bessemer Wins Thrilling Game

New Wilmington Drops Heart Breaking 19-18 Floor Battle, Tuesday

WINNER DECIDED IN FINAL SECONDS

While the clock was clicking off the final seconds of play, Zornich, agile center, dribbled down the side and scored a field goal to give Bessemer high school a 19-18 victory over New Wilmington high, Tuesday night, at Bessemer. The game was one of those hair raisers that linger in the memories of fans for a long time. The victory kept Bessemer in the thick of the fight for Section 21 honors.

The quintets played cautiously in the opening period. New Wilmington taking a 3-1 lead. The schoolboys played evenly and left the floor at the half with the count standing 9-9. Bessemer gained a 15-13 edge during the third and last few minutes there were more thrills in the last few minutes than one sees in a dozen ball games. The setting was something like this: Two minutes left and the college towners on top 16-15. Caldaro dribbled in and made a beautiful two pointer to give Bessemer a 17-16 margin. White revived the hopes of New Wilmington with another nice goal. With the count 18-17 against Bessemer, Zornich worked the sphere along the side of the court, shot and connected through the nets to bring victory to his alma mater, 19-18. Bessemer avenged for an earlier defeat at the hands of New Wilmington.

Zornich, N. Caldaro and Samsa scored most of the points for the winners while Means and Verier scored a dozen of the Wilmington markers. In the preliminary game, the Bessemer maidens won a 23-19 decision over New Wilmington girls.

HULME INVENTS "MURDER GAME"

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 3.—"Murder-ball," a game invented by Jack Hulme, instructor in men's physical education classes, is played with four basketball teams on the floor at the same time. Each team has a basket, and must score in that particular one. Fouls are called only in case of roughness; and that offending player must sit in a "foul box" along the sidelines for penalties ranging from one to four minutes, while his team plays "short."

The game was invented to close the intramural season, where many minor grudges develop because of the close personal play and high spirits. Everyone is supposed to forget his "hard feelings" at the end of the murder-ball contest.

The most fearful noise ever heard by man was when the volcano Krakatoa blew up in 1883. Many people near the mountain were rendered insane by the tremendous noise.

Strength Added By Titan Squad

Backus Returns To Old Position At Center On Westminster Team

MANY TOUGH GAMES AHEAD

PAUL BACKUS

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 3.—Paul Backus, six-foot-three Westminster Titan from Youngstown, over whose probation case 600 students struck last year, is back on the Titan squad again after a first semester's probation. He will return to his old place at the jump position, allowing Ken Grubb, another lengthy Youngstown product, to take his place at guard.

Coach Roark's team has now three regulars from the 1936 championship squad. Krivos, Backus and Demo Backus return to the Titan fold will give Roark an excellent substitute guard in Mel Miller, New Brighton freshman, and a good forward, R. Meyer, Lowellville.

Two other new squad arrivals are Fred Meidor, Pittsburgh Schenley high performer, entering the freshman class, and Jack Moffatt, Duquesne sophomore, star of this year's intramural circuit. Moffatt is fast, aggressive, and well over six feet tall; and according to Coach Roark should develop into first rank material in another year.

With Backus at center, Roark will be assured of the tip-off in a good percentage of games, as the bean-pole Youngstown has both spring and height. Chief worry for Roark at present are two problems: free-throw shooting and a more aggressive scoring attack. The Titans two losses this season went by way of the free-throw route, with Westminster converting on less than one-third of their charity tosses. Lack of a consistent, unified attack also has kept the Titan scoring-machine from functioning properly.

Ahead of the Roarkmen is a tough road, beginning with Pitt, February 3, and including George Washington, Geneva, Villanova, Wayneburg, Washington and Jefferson and a return game with Tech. On consecutive days, February 15-16-17 Westminster will meet three of the strongest teams in the East in George Washington, Colleton, the Villanova Wildcats and the West Chester teachers.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Duquesne university, paced by a brilliant guard, MacLackney, and an alert forward, Walt Miller, proved too good for West Virginia university at Morgantown last night, winning a hardfought game, 48 to 40. Throughout the first half Miller and Phares, the latter a Mountaineers guard, battled gamely for their respective teams, the Duke star getting 12 points with clever work on rebounds and Phares shooting them in from all angles to make nine points for the Mountaineers. The game was deadlocked six times in the first half, which Duquesne took 27 to 20. Duquesne increased its lead to 30 to 20 and then West Virginia rallied. With less than four minutes to go the Dukes held a lead of only one point, or 41 to 40. Miller, Kweiler and Dresnich broke through for easy shots and sewed up the game, 48 to 40. West Virginia Freshmen beat the Duquesne Freshmen 39 to 21. W. & J. downed St. Vincents at Washington, 42 to 34. It was the seventh victory for the Prexies in seven starts and was achieved on the strength of a 36 to 13 lead piled up in the first half. Grove City college looped two field goals in the final minutes of play to snatch a 39 to 36 victory from Hiram college, at Hiram. The lead changed six times between the teams in the last three minutes of play. The Teachers of Slippery Rock defeated Thiel, 39 to 28, at Greenville. Slippery Rock was ahead at the end of the half, 17 to 14. Indiana Teachers won from Clarion Teachers at Clarion, 45 to 22.

Willie Hoppe established a new American record for 182 ballline billiards at New York yesterday, but lost his second straight block to Jake Schaefer in their second 500-point challenge match. Schaefer won, 250 to 230, to lead 500 to 470. Hoppe put together a run of 123 in the sixth inning after Schaefer had clocked off 105 in his sixth appearance at the table to also beat the record of 100 made by Hoppe in their first match at Chicago last week.

Wampum Stays In Race For Section 21 Honors By 28 To 22 Victory

Wampum High School basketball team stayed in the Section 21 race for championship honors this year by handling the Union High quintet a 28 to 22 defeat last night at the Wampum High court. Incidentally it just about read the Union High boys out of the pennant picture.

Coach L. B. Hennon was confined to his home by illness and was unable to attend the game, but his boys played fine basketball for their ailing coach and looked the part of champions. Flumer, Fiddell, Fontana and Scala were very much in the ball game.

Wampums Lead
The Wampums led at the first period 11 to 5, the Unions making their customary slow start. At the end of the first half it was 15 to 8 with Union more in the ball game. The end of the third period found the Wampumians holding a one-point lead at 21 to 20. The Unions looked real good this stanza scoring 12 points to six for the Wampums. In the final period Union laxed back into that slow stride, when Wotowitz was forced out on fouls and only made two points, while watching the Wampums make seven more points.

Joe Ostrosky and Wotowitz led the Unions at bat with five points apiece. For Wampum there was no standard above playing on a par. Fiddell started his first game at forward and responded with a pleasing eight points to lead Wampum. Wampum really won the game at the foul line making 10 out of 15, while the Unions made 2 out of 7.

Friday night it will be Princeton High at the Wampum High court. The summary:

At a special meeting Secretary Schill was authorized to raise the necessary funds and arrange for the transportation. The plant will start with 50 men and then will expand into three daily shifts, Secretary Schill stated. The concern will occupy a portion of the old Stronach Nail mill.

Ellwood City Exceeds Quota For Red Cross

Raise Over $2,000 In Ellwood City Today For American Red Cross Flood Relief

MATHEWS CONVEYOR TURNS OVER $870

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 3.—The proud and smiling faces of Ellwood City citizens need not puzzle visitors. This can be explained by the fact that just shortly after noon today Ellwood City went over the top a day ahead of schedule for funds to the American Red Cross to be used for flood relief. In fact, the quota of $1,500 was appreciably exceeded.

An early report by Secretary Denny Schill of the Chamber of Commerce today had the total up to $1,200 with one more day to go to reach the goal of $1,500. Shortly after noon today the Mathews Conveyor plant of this city brought in its contribution to the fund—a total of $870. Of this sum $435 was donated by the employees of the plant. The company equaled this sum to bring about the total. To date this makes Ellwood City's contribution to the American Red Cross $2,070, which will be turned over to headquarters at New Castle.

The community has once again displayed its fine spirit of co-operation and aid to the less fortunate. The Mathews Conveyor plant and employees hold a place of honor and respect for their ever-willing spirit of co-operation in any emergency.

PROGRAM WOULD LAST SIX YEARS

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Roosevelt sent to congress today the broad outline of a proposed integrated public works policy and national water program.
A printed, 221 page report of the president's National Resources committee comprised the big plan, calling for creation of a permanent public works or development agency in the government.

Under the committee's outline the machinery of the development program would be so created as to speed up or slow down at the will of the government—thus furnishing an ever present reservoir of employment for use in times of economic depression.

Specifically, the report recommended:

- 1—Formulation and annual revision of a six-year program of federal construction.
- 2—Revision and adoption of a list of approved projects included in the report.
- 3—A lump sum appropriation under regular budget procedure for expenditure on the approved projects.
- 4—An allocation of these funds to appropriate construction agencies.

Long Range Plan
Besides the single public works or development agency, the committee plan called for a panel of "appraisers" for allocation of costs, and a fiscal advisory committee to adjust speed of the public works program to the national need for economic stabilization.

In a brief covering message transmitting the report, the president told congress that during the depression many public works projects necessarily have been undertaken hurriedly.

"Now is the time," he said, "to develop a long-range plan and policy for construction to provide the best use of our resources and to prepare in advance against any other emergency."

To allay any possible congressional apprehension that there was anything fixed about the program or the projects, the president added: "The list of public works submitted by the president in the budget message would, of course, be wholly advisory, for it is within the discretion of congress to eliminate projects from this list, to alter the scope of projects or to add other projects."

Expenditures of approximately $30,000,000,000 in federal, state and municipal projects within the next ten years, were envisioned in the report.

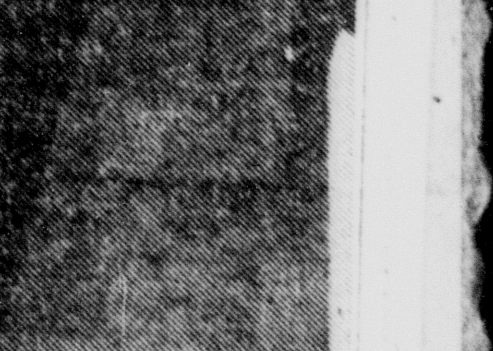

Flood Relief Included
Much of the report embodied plans for development of the national water program, calling for construction of hundreds of dams, reservoirs and spillways in every section of the country.

Seventeen major drainage districts were included in the sectional divisions of the big report, and hundreds of specific projects listed in each one.

"These lists," said the report, "provide a reservoir of meritorious undertakings in the field of water resources that should find during a period of years perhaps a decade, into an integrated pattern of drainage basin development."

The six-year public work program was used, the report revealed, because this period of time best lent itself to orderly development. The listed projects, however, were pictured as not fixed or final, but rather as an indication of a planning program that seems, at the moment, to be feasible. Congress, each year, with the advice of the proposed permanent development agency, would revise the list and, as changing conditions dictate, apply construction pressure where and when it is most needed.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEBALL

What to do the rest of the week... there is sure plenty to do and I don't mean maybe... Tonight you should stay home and rest and save your money. Tomorrow night you will be able to attend the East Side Civic Orchestra concert with the coming-in-fame-conductor, Don Potter... this young maestro will show you old music critics a thing or two... two well known solo stars will be featured... the ever popular Dorothy Frey and James Bowman... the program will begin promptly at 8 o'clock... Third U. P. church.

Friday night the biggest party that New Castle has ever had the privilege to see and attend will be held at the Cathedral... all proceeds go for our stricken brothers and sisters in the flooded south... plan to attend this party, there will be plenty to do... the admission is only 50 cents... let's all help to make our quota and show the folks that New Castle is not dead or asleep... New Castle can and will make their quota.

Parents who try to keep their daughters away from society should read the play "Silver Cord" by Sidney Howard... it will only take a couple of hours and I believe that you will all feel differently toward the question stated in Monday's column.

How would you like amusement with your meals... that is what I have with every noon day meal... a little singing, a little whistling, a few good stories and above all a little magic... no cover charge, the regular charge is high enough... some of New Castle's most prominent people are here... Doctors, auto dealers and business men... they come from far and near... to that cozy little place called Smith's Diner... what a place and what a cook.

Stock Market Is Advancing

Steels Continue To Lead Spurt—Some Oils Also At New Tops

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The improved outlook for settlement of the prolonged auto strike stimulated a fresh advance in the stock market today. Gains ran to 2 and more points in active dealings.

Bethlehem and U. S. Steel each spurted about 2 points to new tops. Republic gained a point along with Youngstown Sheet & Tube and National Steel.

Chrysler advanced about a point. General Motors gained nearly as much, but was forced to absorb considerable profit-taking.

Buying was carried into the rail division, where such representative issues as N. Y. Central, Chesapeake & Ohio, Northern Pacific and Southern Pacific chalked up gains of a point or more. Great Northern jumped close to 2 points.

American Car & Foundry, American Locomotive and Pullman all reached new peaks, the first named advancing 2 points. Texas Corp., Socony and Phillips Petroleum hit new tops in petroleum.

A number of other highs were distributed through the list, including Loew's in amusements, U. S. Gypsum in buildings, up 2. Oliver Farm up as much in farm implements, and Servel.

Aviations displayed hesitancy. Douglas slipping point at one time. Utilities and coppers were quiet and steady.

Bonds were firm. Grains pointed upward, but cotton sold off.

PREPARE VACCINE FOR FLOOD AREA

Unsung heroes of the Ohio and Mississippi river valley flood—laboratory workers in the Walter Reed hospital, Washington, are preparing typhoid vaccine for administration to thousands of flood sufferers. In this photo, Private R. E. Edmonds is seen at the sterilizer, where the mash media (in which the germ is grown) is purified. The germ is then incubated, a vaccine made and the solution put into small bottles. A large jug holds sufficient vaccine to protect 3,000 persons against the danger of typhoid fever.

Georgia Fights Frost With Ice

This picture from Universal Newsreel shows how the Georgia peach crop is being assured for next season. Taken at Montezuma, Ga., it shows how ice packs are placed about the roots of the trees to keep the sap from rising because of the unseasonably mild weather. If the sap rose, a sharp frost would damage, if not kill, the trees.

Local W.P.A. Worker Tells Of Flood Area Experience

In a highly dramatic fashion Miss Dorothy Dickson, local WPA education worker, tells in a letter of her arrival in Louisville, Ky., where she has been assigned by the government to work with flood victims. Miss Dickson left several days ago by automobile for Louisville and her letter is to Miss Margaret Lindsay, head of the Writers' Project in the local WPA offices.

Miss Dickson worked in the spring flood of 1936 in the West Bridge-water district in Beaver county. Her work was so satisfactory that she was asked by the government to register for future work. The Ohio valley flood provided that need.

The letter to Miss Lindsay follows:

Brown Hotel, Louisville, Ky.

Friday 1 a. m., eastern time.

Dear Margaret:

This is the place—at least until further notice. Arrived in Cincinnati at 4 p. m. My route from there was varied and tedious—as follows: Cincinnati, Covington, Ky., Georgetown, Frankfort, Shelbyville and into the "Highland" section of Louisville—423 miles in all. On arrival, I located a section of the Red Cross and got a "pass" through all lines. Left car at the Red Cross sub-station where they were guarding cars. Another was commandeered to take me to the water front. All I can say to myself just now is "Why do these things happen—and why did I come?"

There was a loud speaker unit at the water's edge and a sort of dock. Several boats being unloaded—old folks being carried from boats—the voice blaring out. "All refugees move to the left—Relief cars will get you."—We have the mother located of the small girl who came alone on the No. 30—and so boat—Jones, report your disposition of child to this announcer—Boat needed immediately—One passenger and case to Brown hotel under orders from Washington—Here, nurse (meaning me), move to the right for your boat—and I am loaded in a motor boat, with a man at the prow and me at the motor. "Boys, take this lady as near the Brown hotel as possible and report back immediately to this dock."

Swirling water, darkness, bang-bang of the motor, water slopping around my feet. We are riding down the principal thoroughfare of Louisville, passing a huge stone church about half submerged—birds twitter plaintively from the belfry. The front man yells "Left—Hold on"—a grinding crunch and we safely slide off the sloping roof of a floating shed. Sorry—he misjudged. We continue blocks, make a turn and then have to duck to miss the cross trolley wires. I could reach out and touch a suspended signal light. The water gets more shallow as we reach a little higher region. Then gr-r-r—and he yanks on the motor, but too late. The propeller or something was hitting on something submerged.

It "pops" feebly and stops. We are approaching a street intersection and the current moves us along. Some certain kind of pin broke and has to be replaced in the motor. The current has carried us to the intersection where, whoops! around we go, finally veering off at 45 degrees out of the whirlpool—down the cross street towards the open river. Only one oar in the boat. The front man tries to guide us into a leeward place, but no results. Four blocks we are pushed along—and I really believe I was frightened. Anyway, had I known the rosary I've have said it. (I said "Now-I-Lay-Me" instead.) The man in the front is tired from trying to keep us shoved off milling debris and trying to get us into quieter waters. The fellow at the back is working with the motor. The fellow in front decides to take a rest, so we still have about eight blocks before we would be at the open river—then he'll make a big attempt—as soon as he catches his breath a little.

In the meantime some one had thrown me a bottom part of a percolator and told me to bail. So I was dipping for dear life. We are coming to another intersection and that means a ride on the merry-go-round of a whirlpool and dashed off at a tangent. So the plan is the front man is to work with the oar to get us as near as possible to the large dummy of the safety zone which is about 18 inches out of water—and the other guy or I am supposed to grab for it. The other guy got it. I took a breath and my teeth chattered and my knees shook—but I still dipped.

Not to tire you with any more of this—we hung on to the post and got the motor fixed—finally reached the hotel. Water in the second floor front but we got up an alley in back in the boat—and I walk a pontoon bridge onto the mezzanine entrance. And Mat Wilson is registered but not in. I leave word I've arrived—climb to a room on the ninth floor—am given my two quarts of water for 24 hours in a glass jug, a kerosene lamp (electric in the corridors). Open my case to get P. J.'s and a much needed sleep—to find all my clothes wet from the bottom part of the case about six inches up. So—can't wear anything—and the room is well draped so the clothes won't mildew. The brown skirt was folded so that it isn't wet at all, nor my brown shoes. So I'll get through O. K. Besides I have corduroy trousers, a set of underthings and high top shoes in a case in the car. I'll get over and get them tomorrow.

Margaret, this whole thing is ghastly. A boat upset about an hour before I got here and a man and woman were drowned.

Love to you all,

DOROTHY.

Increase Campaign In Sabbath Schools Is To Start Sunday

February 7 To Be Young People's Day; Campaign Closes On Easter, March 28

Next Sunday, February 7, is "Young People's Day" in the increase campaign that is being sponsored by the Lawrence County Sabbath School association and in which a number of Sunday schools are participating. Every additional person in attendance over the average for last year counts as a gold nugget. At the close of the campaign the Sunday school having the largest number of gold nuggets in comparison with the average attendance of 1936, will be presented with a Christian flag by the participating Sunday schools. The campaign closes Easter Sunday, March 28.

The Sunday schools participating select a certain part of the city for visitation by "prospectors". The individual classes also make a special effort to have their members present. During these eight weeks increased attendance is not only stressed but the goal is to stimulate evangelism, education, effectiveness and church attendance.

The second Sunday of the campaign, February 14, will be known as "Adult Day" and attendance of adults will be particularly stressed. After all, the increase problem of the Sunday school is largely an adult problem, for if the heads of families attend in most cases the other members of the family attend as well.

Many Absent From Union High School

Many Students At Township School Are Victims Of Common Flu

According to R. F. Conway, supervising principal of Union township high school, large numbers of his students have been victims of the popular flu epidemic which is gripping this section at the present time. Absences of from 15 to 20 per cent have been reported in the high school during the past week. With 567 students in the building, this makes from 85 to 113 absent from classes each day. According to Mr. Conway this record is indeed high and it is very seldom that such a large number of students are absent from the building at one time.

Teachers are likewise affected by illness at the school. Last week Olive Ziegler and Elma Robinson were ill. They were able to return the early part of this week, but Josephine Wallace, sixth grade teacher, is now on the absent list because of illness.

A very simple cake with coconut, candied fruit, cocoa, nuts, dates or figs added to the batter gives a variety of flavorings. Topped with whipped cream this cake makes an excellent dessert.

Third, it relieves the headache and fever.

Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Bromo Quinine tablets now come sugar-coated as well as plain. The sugar-coated are exactly the same as the regular, except that the tablets are coated with sugar for palatability.

Highway Inventory System Will Save Citizens Million

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—Huge dents in taxpayers' pocketbooks have been made by "loose inventory" taking and extravagant purchases in county highway districts. Secretary of Highways Warren Van Dyke reported today.

"Slipshod methods and huge waste are shown by a special inventory of highway county stores accounts," he said. "By a modern inventory system which went into effect January 1, and by transfer of stores from one district to another, we will save more than $1,000,000 a year."

LIBRARY BOOKS

Thirty-five years ago the great Biblical scholar, Professor R. G. Moulton, said of the Bible: "We have done almost everything that is possible with these writings. We have overlaid them with exhaustive commentaries; we have translated them, revised the translation and quarreled over the authenticity and inspiration. We have mechanically divided the whole into chapters and verse, and sought texts to memorize and quote. There is yet one thing left to do with the Bible; simply to read it."

A new edition called "The Bible. Designed To Be Read As Living Literature" has recently been received by the Public Library and is being given a wide circulation. It is the King James version in a new form. The arrangement of the books is by time and subject matter; prose is printed as prose, poetry as poetry. Spelling and punctuation are modernized. Genealogies and repetitions are omitted. Above all the text has been arranged to provide, so far as possible, a consecutive narrative.

This Bible represents an edition for reading and enjoyment. Not for theological or reference purposes. It is believed that the Bible in this form will be widely read.

State May Collect Entire Personal Property Taxes

Plans To Collect County's Share Of Tax And Then Refund It

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 3.—Administration leaders today moved to place the collection of the entire eight-mill personal property tax now imposed upon Pennsylvanians under the revenue department. Secretary of revenue John B. Lelly pointed out the state has placed assessments of some $1,150,000,000 more in personal property than have county commissioners. The state now imposes a four mill tax along with the county four mill tax, making a total of eight mills. Under the contemplated plan, the revenue department will collect the entire eight mills, returning four mills to the counties.

Following is a list of comparison between state and county assessments: (First figure represents state assessment.)
